A WEEK OF EAST EUROPEAN THEATRE

GRUPA CHWILOWA – 'A MIRACULOUS STORY'

"Grupa Chwilowa are at the forefront of experimental theatre in Poland and this show has gathered laurels from all over Europe"

(The Times, August 1988)

Formed in Lublin in 1975 as part of Poland's 'alternative theatre' movement, Grupa Chwilowa are one of the handful of companies to have survived the years of martial law. As the leading experimental theatre group they have performed at international festivals in France, Italy, Portugal, Denmark, Israel, Norway and Czechoslovakia.

This is their first performance in London, following a sell-out run at the Assembly Rooms in last year's Edinburgh Festival.

"Grupa Chwilowa provide a vision of theatre which is at once a challenge and an inspiration to British audiences, directors and actors alike"

(The List, August 1988)

NOVEMBER 6 - 10 AT 7.30PM · TICKETS £5 (CONCESSIONS £3.50)

THEATRE Z – A DOUBLE BILL

'METAMORPHOSIS' BY FRANZ KAFKA

'BOULE DE SUIF' BY GUY DE MAUPASSANT

Formed in 1974, Theatre Z have performed all over the world – at festivals in Hungary, Austria, Monaco, Bulgaria, Germany, Japan, Italy and Russia.

This is their first visit to Britain and it is being organised by IATA, the International Amateur Theatre Association, who have encouraged many successful exchanges between East and West.

Theatre Z's repertoire of productions is a catalogue of exciting and successful adaptations – Moliere's 'George Dandin', Gogol's 'Dead Souls', and Plautus's 'Baggart'. The company's popularity also stems from their stylish mix of modern and traditional folk theatre.

NOVEMBER 11 & 12 AT 7.30PM · TICKETS £5 (CONCESSIONS £3.50)

COMBINED TICKETS FOR BOTH SHOWS ARE £8 (CONCESSIONS £6)
